

Z-Bowl Family Entertainment Center Announces Grand Opening

Mebane's Most Anticipated New Facility to Open the Weekend of May 1

(Mebane, NC) April 25, 2010—Z-Bowl, a multi-faceted entertainment center, has announced its grand opening will be held the weekend of May 1 in Downtown Mebane. Friday, April 30 the center will host a ribbon cutting and Chamber of Commerce reception, followed by the official public grand opening events on Saturday May 1 from 1-4pm.

Attendees will experience the state-of-the-art bowling and small ball bowl area, billiards, high-end arcade games, dartboards and shuffleboard. Flat-screen TVs are located throughout the center. An extensive menu offering all the favorites will be available and will include brick oven pizza and an open-flame grill. For adults, Z-Bowl features a beer and wine bar offering both foreign and domestic beers on tap, and a "Z.I.P." executive bowling suite with cozy living room-style seating. Z-Bowl will fill an entertainment void in Mebane and bring visitors from all over to partake in the center's attractions.

Area elected officials and dignitaries will hold a ribbon cutting ceremony on Friday April 30 at 4:30pm. Members of the Alamance Chamber of Commerce are invited to attend the ribbon cutting and post-event reception.

Saturday's grand opening will let the general public experience all that Z-Bowl has to offer plus additional entertainment such as inflatables, exhibitions and special prizes. World renowned professional bowling all-star Kelly Kulick, who in January became the first female to ever win the 2010 PBA Tournament of Champions, will be featured at the event. Ms. Kulick will demonstrate her bowling ability and techniques and will be available to sign autographs. The opening events will be held at Z-Bowl, located at the corner of East Washington and 5th Street in downtown Mebane just ½ block off Highway 70 (Center Street). From I-85/I-40, take exit #153 or #154 to downtown Mebane.
